A Hero in a Lighthouse, A Here in a Lightheuse.

For years J. S. Donahue, So. Haven, Mich., a civil war captain, as a lighthouse keaper, averted awful wrocks, but a queer fact is he might have been a wreck, himself, if Electric Bitters had not prevented, "They cured mu of kidney trouble and chills," he writes, "after I had taken other so called cures for years without benefit, and they also improved my sight. Now, at saventy, I am feeling fine." For dyspepsia, indigestion, all stomach, liver and kidney troubles, they're without equal. Try them. Only 50 cents at Lee & Osgood Co. 2.
